(Reg No. 2006/018145/06)

Promotion of Access to Information Manual

Promotion of Access to Information Manual (the manual) for Workforce Holdings Limited (Registration Number 2006/018145/06) and all its subsidiaries and related entities (the company) as prepared in accordance with section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the Act).

1. Introduction

Section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, No. 108 of 1996 (hereinafter referred to as the "Constitution") stipulates that:

- "(1) Everyone has the right of access to –*
- (a) any information held by the state; and*
 - (b) any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.*
- (2) National legislation must be enacted to give effect to this right, and may provide for reasonable measures to alleviate the administrative and financial burden on the state."*

Based on the above section 32 as well as section 8, which provides for the horizontal application of the rights set out in Chapter 2 ("the Bill of rights") of the Constitution, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 was promulgated in order to give effect to the above-mentioned constitutional right of access to information subject to justifiable limitations as specifically set out in section 50 of the Act.

Section 50 of the Act provides that a requester must be given access to any record of a private body if –

- "(1) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;*
- (2) that person complies with the procedural requirements in this Act relating to a request for access to that record; and*
 - (3) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part."*

In addition to the above limitations, a requester also has to act in the public interest if such requester is a public body (i.e. the State) requesting information from such a private body.

According to the Act a “private body” means:

- “(a) a natural person who carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession, but only in such capacity;*
- (b) a partnership which carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession;*
- (c) any former or existing juristic person, but excludes a public body.”*

8. How to Facilitate a Request for Access to Information

8.1 Introduction

Access to information held by the company is not automatically available and can be refused by the company on any of the grounds for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Act.

In order to request access to information held by the company, the person requesting access to such information (hereinafter referred to as the "requester") must not only identify the right it is seeking to exercise or protect and explain why the record requested is required for the exercise or protection of that right but must also comply with all the procedural requirements set out in the Act. Should the person requesting access to the information be a public body (i.e. state), such person must identify that it is requesting such information in the public's interest by stipulating adequate reasons.

8.2 Procedural Requirements

- In order to facilitate such a request for access to information, the requester need to complete the prescribed access form attached hereto as Annexure "A". Please note that the prescribed access form must be completed in full of which failure to do so may result in the process being delayed until such additional information is provided.
- Proof of identity is required to authenticate the request and the requester. Therefore in addition to the prescribed access form, requestors will be required to supply a certified copy of their identification document or any other legally acceptable form of identification.
- A request will not be processed until the request fee of R50 (fifty Rand) and a deposit of the access fee (if applicable) have been paid. The request fee is an administration fee that must be paid before the request is considered and is not refundable. However, a requester requesting information containing personal information about the requester is excluded from paying the request fee.
- The access fee, as set out in Annexure "B" attached hereto, is intended to reimburse the company for the costs involved in searching and preparing the record requested for delivery and is payable once access to the record requested is granted. Should this request for access to information be about a person other than the requester himself/herself and the company is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record will take more than six hours, a deposit (which is 1/3) of the access fee is payable before the request will be processed by the company.
- A reproduction fee, as set out in Annexure "C" attached hereto, is payable by the requester, in case of the reproduction of a record requested, notwithstanding the fact that it is automatically available.

8.3 Notification

Requestors will be informed within 30 days of the company's decision to refuse access to the information requested based on any of the grounds for refusal as contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Act. Take note that the 30 day period may be extended for a further 30 day period should more time be required to gather the requested information. The requester will, however, be notified if the initial 30 day notice period is to be extended for a further 30 days.
